The numbers under the period columns (B1 to GII) show how many separate occurrences have been recorded (one occurrence may consist of a whole tea set or just a plate). If all period columns are blank, then occurrences were seen but the period was either not recorded or a period mark was not present.

Please, if you have seen other numbers not on the list or if the list doesn't have an image of a particular decoration way and you have an image, I would be grateful if I could add them for the benefit of all Belleekers. Also, if you can add more detail to the decoration description or have seen an example that does not conform please get in touch. You can email the Research Group at research@belleek.org.uk

I have to particularly thank those collectors who have enthusiastically sent me information and photographs and allowed me to open up their display cabinets and handle their most prized pieces. The ownership of some pictures included in this research was not identifiable and so I must also thank these unknown, but valued, contributors.

Thank you to all who have encouraged and contributed.
